Pendleton, Ore. Phone 524

(This advertisement was written and submitted by W. C. E. Pruitt and is paid for by voluntary subscriptions of a large number of business men and taxpayers who believe that a change to the commission form of government at the present time would be inadvisable.)

If the Commission Government is to reduce taxation it must reduce operating and maintenance expenses. How can it do this when it adds $3200 in salaries alone where now no salaries are paid? To offset this additional expense it must cut down expenses elsewhere. It must reduce the expenses of the police department, water department, health department, fire department, sewer department or some other department and any reduction in these departments from their present high standard would be a reduction in efficiency.

Where fourteen men, citizens and taxpayers of Pendleton, and all good, substantial business men now handle the affairs of the city and water department the Commission Government would turn this all over to three men who would be willing to do it and capable of doing it for the salary of $100 a month for mayor and $75 a month each for the commissioners.

Would you do it for $100 or $75 a month?

If the Commission Government Charter is an honest attempt by an honest organization to give the people of Pendleton a better government than they now have why was that re-assessment clause stricken from the charter by the coterie of men who framed it after it had been placed in the charter by the Commercial Club and endorsed by the business men and taxpayers of Pendleton? There may be another Jackson street paving under the Commission government. How then is this commissioner charter going to get around forcing this burden upon the taxpayers? The one equitable provision by which this future contingency might be avoided was stricken from the proposed charter by the men who framed it.

Why should the voters, the people and taxpayers have this class legislation forced down their throats under the guise of a commission government by a small number of men who see a chance to secure another good, fat attorney fee through the paving of another Jackson street?

What opportunity is there under this Commission Charter for fair, open and above board competition on street paving in particular or any other kind of improvement in general?

If its provisions relating to street paving do not absolutely force and declare for combinations on the part of paving companies they do at least invite and put a premium on collusion. How? That provision providing that not less than three bids shall be submitted when a hard surface or patented paving is called for costing over $5,000. No three companies are going to bid on the same pavement and any one company in order to get the job at all, or even in order to make it possible for the city to let the contract, would necessarily have to secure the collusion of two other companies, either dummies or otherwise, put in at least two fictitious bids and then put up the earnest money, which is twenty-five per cent of the contract price for all three bids. To break even the company getting the work would have to charge all this up against the paving job and the people would pay for it, and pay a good price too.

Read that Charter carefully.

What opportunity is there for a continuation and completion of the Thorn Hollow water system under the Commission Charter?

How is one commissioner at a salary of $75 a month, burdened with all his other official duties, say nothing of his private duties, going to give the same care, consideration, time, money and benefit of his experience to this great undertaking as the present water commission of five good, substantial, taxpaying business men?

If there is an opportunity for graft on the water board with five men on it what chance will there be for only one man?

If there is any graft in the city council where there are eight men and a mayor what chance will there be for graft where there are only two commissioners and a mayor?

If a man won't play honest and fair without any salary can you buy his honesty for $75 a month?

There is not at the present time a vacant house in the city of Pendleton. The store buildings are all occupied. Business is good. There is work for every one who wants work. Everybody is prosperous, business is better than ever known. Bank deposits are the largest in the history of the country. The town is improving. It is progressing. It is passing from the village class to the city class.

Paved streets, good roads and improved conditions have come to be a necessity. The people want them. The efficiency of the fire department has been increased with a corresponding decrease in the price of insurance and a corresponding increase in protection.

With all this the taxpayer is paying no more taxes than he did when there was nothing doing no improvement, no advance, no progress. Cities under the Commission Form of Government cut out all improvements, reduce salaries, decrease efficiency in all departments in order to effect a saving by which to make a showing. The mayor and commissioners sap the life blood of the city in order to perpetuate their own salaried positions.

In this election for the first time in their lives the women will have an opportunity to say whether their vote is going to be in favor of progress, advancement and prosperity or whether they are going to join the small number of malcontents, pessimists and self-aggrandizement seekers. The women will say whether or not they are in favor of purely class legislation or the wide freedom of a government by the people and for the people and the whole people irrespective of birth or wealth.

How many of you women voters will be eligible to vote on the questions of taxation assessments and improvements under this Commission Charter? How much of a voice will you have in the government of the city and legislation pertaining to and affecting property rights?

Here is the bill as it will appear on the ballot Monday:

"PROPOSED BY INITIATIVE PETITION:

"Charter Amendment changing the present form of Government of The City of Pendleton to a government by a Board of three Commissioners, adopting the Commission form of government, etc."

"Vote YES or NO:

"400 YES

"401 NO.

If you want to vote against the Commission Government mark an X between the figures 401 and Not thus:

SALTS IF BACKACHE AND KIDNEYS HURT

STOP EATING MEAT FOR A WHILE IF YOUR BLADDER IS TROUBLING YOU.

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it generally means you have been eating too much meat, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which overworks the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and loggy. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve your bowels; removing all the body's urinous waste else you have backache sick headache, dizzy spells; your stomach sour, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water scalds and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is a life saver for regular meat eaters. It is inexpensive, cannot injure and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink.

NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—It was the army mule versus the navy goat at the Polo Grounds today, and in that direction all roads from Washington, Baltimore, Boston and Philadelphia pointed. Army and navy officers and high government officials from Washington and surrounding army and naval stations were on hand. President Wilson and Mrs. Wilson were expected to be the honored guests of the contending United States academies. Among other spectators, Francis B. Sayre and Mrs. Sayre (nee Miss Jessie Woodrow Wilson) were expected to be in a box on the sidelines. Secretary of the Navy Josephus Daniels sat with the middles from Annapolis.

Secretary of War Lindley M. Garrison, as was the custom, occupied the box of honor in front of the stands reserved for the grey uniformed cadets from West Point. Society was out in force, the brilliant scenes in the stands rivalling even the scenes presented by the stands at Madisonbrook when the American poloists showed the way to their British opponents last spring.

With a record of only one touch-down against them this season and that made by Buckness, defeated by a score of 70 to 7, the navy had the edge in the betting today. The cadets were considered on the short end of 10 to 7 and 10 to 8 bets by virtue of their one defeat by Notre Dame by 35 to 13, and the close scores in the Colgate and Tufts games which were 7-6 and 2-6 respectively.

NOVEL STREET SUIT.

A dainty street suit in champagne color is pictured here. A novel feature is the broad belt effect falling below the natural waist line and joining the two panel sides. The large revers may be folded over and buttoned—a row of buttons on the left side of the coat and one of loops on the bottom of the right revers making this possible. The sleeve is long, close-fitting and untrimmed; the skirt collar, only a glimpse of which shows on the shoulder, is heavily embroidered in silk. The panel sides are treated in the same manner. Worn with this is a hat of champagne cut velvet banded with darker velvet and jauntily trimmed with a green wig.

ONE FIFTH SHOULD BE IN FORESTS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—To properly regulate stream-flow and to protect the soil from washing, not less than from one-fifth to one-third of the total area of the country should be in forest. This is the recommendation made by the forestry committee at the fifth national conservation congress.

Forests must be protected, the committee adds, not so much in localities which already suffer from lack of moisture as in regions which lie in the path of prevailing winds and are still abundantly supplied both with ground water and precipitation. In the Atlantic plain therefore, and in the southern Appalachians, the gateways for the prevailing winds from the Gulf of Mexico and the Atlantic ocean, forests must be especially conserved if the humidity of the great central basin of the country, the granary of the continent is to be maintained.

Where the clearing of the forest in the Atlantic and Gulf coast states is a necessity, it should be done only under the condition that the cleared land is to be devoted to intense cultivation, as, after forests, crops contribute most to the moisture of the air. Forests themselves, according to the scientists, evaporate into the air several times more moisture than is given off by water surfaces of equal area and these southeastern forests act as a moisture reservoir for the water which falls upon them and is in turn taken up and passed on again. By safeguarding the humidity in the regions which lie in the path of the prevailing winds the farm lands further inland ought to get more rain. Cleared land which becomes waste or poor pasture, or grows up to weak vegetation means so much evaporation lost to the passing air currents.

YELLOW BLISTERS ALL OVER BODY

Itched and Hurt So Could Not Rest Day or Night. Nearly Tortured to Death. Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment Cured.

Holmes, New Mexico.—"Our little boy first broke out in little yellow blisters about the size of pin heads and they itched and hurt so badly he could not rest day nor night. In a few days they were running sores and kept spreading until they were as large as a dollar. He had them all over his body and was nearly tortured to death, as they hurt him so badly he could hardly sleep. He would scratch and cause great sores all over his face and legs.

We tried several highly recommended remedies but they didn't seem to help him a bit. Nothing seemed to do any good until we got Cuticura Soap and Ointment. We hadn't used the Cuticura Soap and Ointment but a short time before he was completely cured without a scar." (Signed) Mrs. J. H. Northcutt, Nov. 22, 1912.

Not only are Cuticura Soap and Ointment most valuable in the treatment of eczema and other distressing eruptions of skin and scalp, but they are also most effective in the treatment of pimples, blackheads, red, rough skins, itching, scaly scalps, dandruff, dry, thin and falling hair, chapped hands and shapeless nails. A single cake of Cuticura Soap (25c) and box of Cuticura Ointment (50c) are often sufficient when all else has failed. Sold by druggists and dealers everywhere. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address postcard "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

Men who have and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.
